Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others; and,

Whereas, Janet Speidel has dedicated the past 25 years to serving the city of Martin as its City Auditor and City Finance Officer; and,

Whereas, Janet's knowledge of municipal government and sound judgment has benefited the city and all members of the community and she has always been known for being efficient, courteous and dedicated; and,

Whereas, Janet is a valuable and dedicated employee that will be dearly missed:

Whereas, Janet plans to travel when she retires and to continue her activities with St. Katherine's Episcopal Church and the American Legion Auxiliary; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement from the city of Martin:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 30, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join her co-workers, family, and friends in congratulating her on this well-earned retirement and wishing her a long, healthy, peaceful and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
